Reports.

Report of the British bark " Bentinck. The Bentinek, James Thomas master, put back, Hills, &c., drawn on ung of the above places having been surprised by pirates, in China hay, on the morning of Saturday Bth Didember, with less of two ven, portion of the cargo, master's and crep's effects, ships stores, furniture, &c. On the morning of Manday 4th, sailed from Hongkong bound to Ninggo, with a general cargo, end crew consisting of 14 men, all went well, and on: Priday evening the 8th instant, heing in with Chine Bay and blowing a fresh increusing gale from E. to N. I considered it would be advactage us, to the progress to the passage to muchor in the said Chino Bay, till 3 or 4 n'oloce the following murning, accordingly came to in 6 fathoms. At 5.15 P.M., set the regular watch, with order's to call all bands if any suspicious oraft were approsolding the ship. At 5.15 A. . (Materday) the seo, and mate called all hands saying there was a junk apparently coming alongside. We all got on deck almost immediately, but to a moment the junk pets and firing pistols shots on board as she rangcd alongside. I saw some of the men run to the fire-arms a few of which where an deck, but as some of the pirates were by that time on board, I ordered them (my cres) not to fire a shot, but to get down below immediately as I considered it than the paly chance for their lives. We then all made below, the deck being by that time covered with pirates, I onlied to those nearest me to get in the lasarette, and one man and myself got down, by this time the pistole show were firing down the cabin, and pirates had postession of the shin, they then began to call out for the Captain. The Ch el mate came in the Laurette at this time, and immediately after him what appeared the leader of the Gang, he called to me to come up, but I levelled a terrifer at him, at the sight of which he jumped up quink himself, a second shortly after came below the scattle, but he went up rather quicker then the first I did not fire at either of those men, as the mate and man that were with, and myself, were certain that if I did it would be a signal for the murder of all the crew. I finally agreed to come up unarmed and at their mercy, the mate to pass the pistule to the | Co.) Chinese afterwards. I considered throughout the cutire aff. ir. (that my death was certain,) but I now believe through my sparing their leader, the crew that I have now on board and myself-were

On their getting hold of me, the apparent leader ordered me to show him where the opinio and 2000 dollars were stowed (as we had neither, I could not tell blm) be persisted that we had as he had information from Canton that it was put on heard. In the mean time they were rilling every place on board the ship, breaking the batches open &c., and dragging me with them. with continually threate of being shot &c As day was breaking they all at once at a signal left the ship, leaving me in the main hold. I extinguished all the highes they had been using, and watched the junk leave the bip. I then got on dock and with the second mate, began to muster the men. When we found two mlosing vir James Collier (A.B.) and William Tally (A.B.) and consider Albe V. Heard Enq. Con E. Maclean, Enq. they must have been chased over the Bows and shot in the water. All the remainder of the Dougles Lapraik, Esq. Pallinge France, E.q. erew were annurt, myself being the only one with H. B. Lemant, Esq. Arthur Sassoon, Esq. either marks or bruises. The pira es had robbed the ves el pl'a portion of the cargo, ships stores. and furniture, and crew's and master's effects and brenking the cabin lockers, and door's and rifling the cabin of everything of value.
